

November 1, 2016

Contact:

Chenesani Asa 202-244-4990; casa@botswanaembassy.org

OR

Jan Du Plain 202-486-7004; jan@duplain.com

Embassy of Botswana to Participate in 5th Annual Embassy Showcase—Winternational at the Ronald Reagan Building and International Trade Center

The event, sponsored by Trade Center Management Associates, will connect the DC community with the culture and traditions of over 35 countries

Washington, D.C. – Joining over 35 other embassies, Embassy of Botswana will be featured at the Ronald Reagan Building and International Trade Center’s (RRB/ITC) 5th annual embassy showcase, Winternational, from 11 AM – 2 PM, Wednesday, December 7, 2016.

Last year, more than 2,500 guests attended this lively midday celebration of international culture, travel, tourism and trade. Embassy of Botswana will hold opportunities for 1:1 interviews with staff members and exhibitors and will showcase Botswana culture and traditions through visual art displays, foods, handicrafts, as well as travel and tourism information. Guests have the opportunity to travel to Botswana and learn its history and customs—all within the lunch hour! Free and Open to the Public!

WHAT: Winternational – 5th Annual Embassy Showcase

WHO: Embassy of Botswana in partnership with Trade Center Management Associates and the following Embassies:

Afghanistan, African Union, Armenia, Australia, Azerbaijan, Bangladesh, Botswana, Cape Verde, Costa Rica, Egypt, EU Delegation, Ghana, Guatemala, Haiti, Honduras, Hungary, Indonesia, Kenya, Kyrgyzstan, Libya, League of Arab States, Mozambique, Nicaragua, Oman, Panama, Philippines, Qatar, Rwanda, Saudi Arabia, Sri Lanka, St. Kitts & Nevis, Tunisia, Turkey, Uganda, Ukraine, Uruguay, and Uzbekistan.

WHEN: Wednesday, December 7, 2016 11:00am – 2:00pm ET

WHERE: Atrium | Ronald Reagan Building and International Trade Center, 1300 Pennsylvania Ave., NW, D.C.

